SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS / NOTIFY PARTY DETAILS

TRADING CONDITIONS

The Company is not a common carrier. All business and services are conducted according to Schenker South Africa (Pty) Ltd and the South Africa Association of Freight Forwarders, Standard Trading Terms and Conditions. Full text is available on request or can be accessed on our website namely www.dbschenker.com/za. All customers are deemed to have read and understood all the aforementioned conditions and agree to be bound thereby. We are acting as agents only and do not accept liability for actions, errors or omission on the part of carriers or third parties who are governed by their respective rules, regulations and conditions.

NOTES

- The shipper hereby declares that all of the above particulars are true and correct and that he is aware of and accepts the Schenker Standard Trading Conditions (copy available on request).
- Any shipment sent as Charges Collect, should the consignee refuse to accept charges, the shipper will be held liable for all charges.
- The shipper certifies that this shipment does not contain any unauthorized explosives, destructive devices or Dangerous Goods. Any Dangerous Goods have been declared, packed and labeled in accordance with IATA regulations. A dangerous goods certificate must accompany shipment.
- CIA shipments will only be processed when the appropriate funds have been transferred to our account.
- I (the shipper) am aware that this endorsement and original signature will be retained on file for further reference.
- Should the shipper choose the Hand search option as the method of screening the cargo, we will conduct this procedure in a secure area within one of our regulated premises under camera surveillance. In this case Schenker is exonerated from any claims arising from this security procedure.
